Herbruck Alder Announces Merger Agreement with PJK Agency, Inc.

Cleveland, OH -- Herbruck Alder, a Cleveland based employee benefits brokerage and consulting firm, recently merged with Jim Kamer owner of PJK Agency, Inc. of Chagrin Falls, Ohio. The merger will increase the number of clients served through Herbruck Alder to nearly 600, and will position Herbruck Alder as one the largest leading employee benefits brokerage firms in Northern Ohio.

The merger agreement became effective on September 1, 2006 and is expected to close on January 1, 2007. Beginning January 1, 2007, Jim Kamer will become a shareholder and officer of Herbruck Alder. The PJK Agency, Inc. office will remain in Chagrin Falls, and will begin operating under the Herbruck Alder name immediately. The merger will increase Herbruck Alder to 43 staff members. Additional terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Herbruck Alder will offer value added benefits to PJK Agency, Inc.'s current clients by offering employee benefits brokerage and consulting services, retirement plan consulting, human resources consulting, human resources technology services, health and wellness plan coordination, and educational seminars.

"Herbruck Alder is a first class employee benefits brokerage and consulting firm," said Jim Kamer. "The value added benefits that Herbruck Alder can bring to PJK Agency, Inc. clients is unparalleled in Northern Ohio."

"We are excited to announce the most recent expansion of Herbruck Alder," said Mark Alder, president of Herbruck Alder. "Jim Kamer has more than 35 years experience in the employee benefits industry, and will be a great asset to the Herbruck Alder team."

Since 1962, Herbruck Alder has provided Ohio based companies with health insurance, retirement plans, life and disability insurance, long-term care insurance, and executive benefits. For more information about Herbruck Alder, visit www.herbruckalder.com.
